

A Note From Our Administrator

Hello residents, staff, and friends:

June is here! June marks the beginning of summer and also the end of the school year for students as they look forward to vacationing with family/friends, going to summer camps, or just enjoying lazy days.

At Regal Heights, our residents and staff are welcoming summer with the New Castle County Platinum picnic event, the Longwood Gardens bus trip, and the Regal Heights Father's Day event. We also begin our barbeque season, starting with our Memorial Day cookout. The summer kick-off would not be complete without the Christiana Mall and the Dollar Store shopping trips. We welcome you to join us and as always volunteers are welcome.

Sincerely,

Cassandra Lor

Resident of the Month: Ms. Angeline Celano

Regal Heights is pleased to announce Angeline Celano as our Resident of the Month. Mrs. Celano was born and raised in Wilmington, Delaware. After graduating from Wilmington High School, she went to work at her father's grocery store where he taught her how to run her own business. Later, she began working for Ballanca Aircraft during wartime, riveting bolts on the planes. She met and married Fiore and stayed home to raise four children. She and her husband ran their own business. Mrs. Celano is a lover of plants and raised prized African Violets. After retirement, she taught a class once a week showing students how to raise plants. Her hobbies include antiques, crochet and music. A message from Mrs. Celano, "Enjoy the beauty in others and what surrounds you."
